

Provide more funding so that schools can have the infrastructure to support wireless networks and the highest speed internet possible.